

INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC-PRACTICAL CONFERENCE

“CHALLENGES AND PROSPECTS OF SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT”

16th of March 2023

Kolping University of Applied Sciences

PURPOSES OF THE CONFERENCE

To bring together researchers, scientists and practitioners from various fields to discuss the challenges and perspectives of sustainable development; present the results of research relevant to the topic of the conference, share insights, experiences and innovative ideas.

DESCRIPTION OF THE CONFERENCE

Sustainable development is gaining more and more meaning in the modern world. The goals of sustainable development cover the most diverse areas of our lives - both social and economic, as well as the natural resources to meet these social or economic needs. These goals can be implemented both on an individual and national scale - from sorting waste, stopping bullying, to creating dignified jobs or using energy from renewable sources.

During the conference, issues of sustainable development (the role of youth in the context of sustainable activities, challenges in developing a sustainable community, tourism, community and socio-cultural sustainability, promoting community through volunteering, inclusion of persons with disabilities in sustainable development activities, etc.) will be discussed after evaluating the different experiences of European countries, discussing emerging challenges and sharing best practices.

CONFERENCE SUB-THEMES

Participants are invited to read reports and publish articles (in English or Lithuanian) in the following subtopics:

- Implementation of sustainability principles in organizations.
